

ITALIAN SCREENS

New Italian Cinema Goes Abroad

Una rassegna of contemporary Italian cinema — seven new films presented in collaboration with Italy's leading cultural institutions, spanning genres, styles, and the evolving identity of il cinema italiano today. The selection also highlights opportunities for international distribution, acquisition, and co-production, inviting global industry professionals to engage with Italy's dynamic film sector and discover new creative partnerships.

Step into the heart of contemporary Italian cinema as ICFF proudly showcases a dynamic program presented in collaboration with Italy's leading cultural institutions. This curated selection highlights the depth, creativity, and global resonance of Italian storytelling through a diverse slate of films VII FILMS.

creative, cultural, and industrial strengths. It is an opportunity to experience the passion, artistry, and innovation that define Italian cinema today, continuing ICFF's tradition of delivering world-class cultural experiences that connect audiences with the very best of international film.

The lineup includes Follemente, Un Bel Giorno, 2 Cuori 2 Capanne, La Città Proibita, La Grazia, Le Assaggiatrici, and Cinque Secondi. Spanning genres, styles, and perspectives, these works offer audiences a rich cinematic journey — from intimate human stories to visually striking and thought-provoking narratives that reflect the evolving identity of Italian film today.

Set within the vibrant atmosphere of the festival, this special presentation celebrates not only the films themselves but also the institutions behind them, while highlighting the tax incentives, distribution opportunities, and co-production support that Italy has to offer. It is also an invitation for international producers, distributors, and filmmakers to shoot in Italy, acquire and distribute Italian films, and develop co-productions with Italian partners, taking advantage of the country's unique

THE PROGRAM

From Sorrentino's grace notes to Mainetti's neon-lit Rome — sette film italiani across genres, styles and perspectives.

CINQUE SECONDI

La Grazia

Un bel giorno

2 CUORI E 2 CAPANNE

LE ASSAGGIATRICI

LA CITTA PROIBITA

Folle e Mente

PRESENTED BY

CINECITTÀ

ROBERTO STABILE | Head of International Department · CINECITTÀ

